

What is FirstGel chicken :

a unique formulation developed on the basis of the nutritional needs of a young poultry that ensures rapid hydration, energy, early intestinal protection and proper development. It can be used for transport to the first days of life, but also to the older animals of all races.

Formulation:

dry green powder , easy and quick to dissolve in water , in 10-15 minutes becomes gel form which is easy to administrate in incubators and farms.

Dose and administration:

Powder from box (500g) dissolved in 10L of water and dividede gel into portions on the floor, a transport box for one-day chicks, livestock cages or on the floor. One pack of Firstgel Chicken is intended for 10,000 pieces of day-old chicks or 450kg of BW adult poultry.

Turkeys: packing is sufficient for 5,000 turkey or 225kg BW adult individuals.

BENEFITS:

- Helps prevent dehydration
- Helps to overcome service stress
- Provides a valuable source of nutrients
- Encourages early food intake
- Stimulates the development of the digestive system
- Great fresh start of breeding
- Top production capabilities
- Stable gel provides uniform suspension
- Perfect for insoluble ingredients
- Individual drops of gel are easily detectable and consumed
- It will not soak the feathers
- Ideal for use in livestock delivery systems
- Excellent return on investment

